Part 1: How does your action plan help students (and your colleagues)?

1. Understand that relationships matter for their learning and well-being – in college and also in experiential learning and engaged dialogue.

2. Learn strategies to connect meaningfully with staff, faculty, peers, and community partners.

3. Act in ways that enable them to build those relationships.

Part 2: "Working differently" to make your action plan more relationship-rich:

1. How can each phase of your action plan center collaboration, trust-building, & professional development?

2. How does your action plan…
    a. Commit to relationship-building as a core strategy
    b. Establish shared framework(s)
    c. Value and invest in relational teaching
    d. Grow relational capacity in individuals and the organization
    e. Align values, structures, and systems
