OFFICE OF CURRICULAR, PEDAGOGICAL, AND DIGITAL INNOVATION

VALUE Week

A free, virtual professional development series from AAC&U

- Dive into the VALUE rubrics—AAC&U's internationally recognized framework for assessing student learning
- Explore rubric implementation, calibration, and scoring across general education and beyond
- Connect VALUE rubrics to authentic assessment and high-impact practices
- Learn practical strategies for using the VALUE approach to assessment on your campus

This series of four webinars is free to attend and open to faculty, administrators, and assessment professionals alike.

Event hosted by AAC&U's Office of Curricular, Pedagogical, and Digital Innovation.

Registration opens July 2026
