Revising General Education—And Avoiding the Potholes

Introduction ...................................................... 1
The Changing Environment for General Education ............... 2
Strategies for Change—and the Potholes They Face ............. 6
What Is the Problem that Needs Fixing? ......................... 7
Erroneous Task Force Procedures ............................... 10
The Big Question: What Is General Education? ................. 14
Mistakes to Avoid in Program Planning ......................... 18
Securing Approval of Proposals ................................ 22
Program Implementation ........................................ 26
In Summary ......................................................... 30

Appendix A: Pothole Patches .................................. 31
Appendix B: The Essential Learning Outcomes .................. 35
References .......................................................... 37
About the Authors ................................................ 40