Contents

Acknowledgments ................................................................. v

FROM THE FUNDERS
Lorenzo L. Esters, Strada Education Network ........................................................ vi
Benjamin P. Dobner, Great Lakes Higher Education Corporation & Affiliates ........... vii

FOREWORDS
The Equity Imperative
Lynn Pasquerella, Association of American Colleges and Universities ................... viii
A Vision for Equity
Tia Brown McNair, Association of American Colleges and Universities ................ ix

CAMPUS CASE STUDIES
Building and Sustaining an Equity-Minded Campus
Anne Arundel Community College ................................................................. 1
Becoming a Student-Ready University
California State University–Northridge ........................................................... 5
Project LAUNCH: From “Can’t Do” to “Can Do”
California State University–Sacramento ...................................................... 8
Combining Grassroots and Institutional Leadership to Promote Equity
Carthage College ..................................................................................... 12
Moving Forward in Advancing Equity for Student Success
Clark Atlanta University ............................................................................. 16
Promising Pathways: Anatomy of a Successful Pilot
Dominican University ............................................................................. 20
Campus-Based Strategies for African American Student Success
Florida International University ............................................................... 24
Building an Equity-Minded Pathway for Transfer Students
Governors State University ....................................................................... 28
Embedding Equity through the Practice of Real Talk
Lansing Community College ....................................................................... 32
Increasing Student Access to High-Impact Practices: Inclusive Excellence Project Findings
Morgan State University ........................................................................... 37
Improving Student Success for Males at a Historically Black University
North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University ......................... 41
Designing Quantitative Pathways toward STEM Success
Pomona College ....................................................................................... 45
Decreasing the Equity Gap Is a Winding Process: A Report of Outcomes
Wilbur Wright College ............................................................................. 49

continued
Contents

CLOSING THOUGHTS FROM OUR PARTNER
Making Sense of Data in Equity-Minded Ways
   Lindsey Malcom-Piqueux, Center for Urban Education, University of Southern California .... 52

Reflections on the Meaning of Equity and the Practice of Equity-Mindedness
   Estela Mara Bensimon, Center for Urban Education, University of Southern California ........ 53

References .......................................................................................................................... 55
About the Funders ............................................................................................................. 58
About Our Partner ............................................................................................................ 59